

QUINTA de SANT'ANA MAFRA

90 points

Robert Parker,
THE most widely-known wine critic in the world today, gave us 90 points for both our ALVARINHO and our RIESLING! Also a very pleasing 89 points for our ROSÉ and the newly launched PINOT NOIR.

Riesling 2010: "absolutely solid and precise, lingering on the mouthwatering finish and showing fine persistence..... this seems simply terrific"

Alvarinho 2010: "Crisp and tightly wound, it has considerable grip on the succulent finish and shows good precision. Full bodied, very tasty and quite charming"

Pinot Noir 2009: "they've gotten the sensibilities absolutely, positively right here. There are moments when this seems amazingly impressive...The aromatics are great, though, and the strawberry-tinged fruit, which turns a bit earthy and quite Burgundian, is quite tasty. If you are looking for big, sweet and ripe, this isn't for you. It is a far more intellectual wine, clean, bright, graceful and lovely"

Rosé 2010: "Succulent and gripping on the finish, it is quite lovely."

"The unusual wines drink very well, They are generally excellent, not just curiosities. Owners James and Ann Frost and winemaker Antonio Moita Macanita seem to have an interesting future in store for us"
